EL CAPITAN 1964

MODESTO UNION ACADEMY

MODESTO, CALIFORNIA

Through these pages are treasured memories captured not only on film and paper, but also in the hearts of the many students. There are pictures; some posed others taken by a candid camera, all reproducing faithfully the many facets of life at M.U.A. With the pictures are words; words to be read in the future. Words that we hope will recall all the days of work, study, recreation and worship that took place at M.U.A. in 1963-64.

WAYNE McCULLOCH

The EL CAPITAN of 1964 is fondly dedicated to two men who have done much for our beloved M.U.A. They have so unselfishly given their time and energy to the growth, beauty, and well-being of our campus and hold a cherished place in our memories. To Mr. Wayne McCulloch who has given us so much time, labor and kindly assistance, and to another, Mr. Max Williams, who also gave so much of himself in earnest labor, we dedicate this book.

MAX WILLIAMS

As we pass through life all of us must cross many bridges; bridges to span the ever present problems of life. The academy years have, perhaps, more of these 'problems' than any other period of life. It is therefore fitting that the theme of this El Capitan be Bridges.

A yearbook is a cooperative effort. That is, it is the product of the combined labors of many people. This years' El Capitan is no exception. It is the result of the generous assistance of the sponsor, Mr. Gordon de Leon; the careful portrait photography of Mr. Gordon Ham; the pledged interests of our advertisers; and the many snaps from our students. To each, a heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely
Ed Stump
Editor

ADMINISTRATION 63-64

Administration is a big word, but it is an even bigger job. This imposing and sometimes thankless task is adequately accomplished by our teachers, board of trustees, and administrator. They guide in planning our school year and help us to bridge the many turbulent rivers in our life. They are our truest friends.

LESLIE W. BIETZ
Principal

Students pass through these doors but once. Each day's experiences become history and leave opportunity only for joy or regret. During this time of character development, each habit formed and each lesson learned should be an element of Christ-like growth to them. No effort or sacrifice on the part of parents, teachers, and students to improve and enrich every phase of student development in this pre-dawn hour can be considered supreme.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

This group of distinguished individuals represents the Christian Backbone of our school. Without them our school could not function and we believe that there are no finer and better qualified persons anywhere. They have sacrificed both time and expense to guide us through the rough spots in our daily experience. Progress is their motto and we have only to look about us to see the evidence. As students, we hope that we can fulfill our great obligation to them by becoming the Christian witnesses needed to finish the work, and hasten the coming of our Lord.

Fortunately, theorems, adjectives, calisthenics, memory verses, and Spanish conversations are not the total of our school experience. There are the impressive banquets, the lively parties, the fatiguing picnics, and on very rare occasions, a fun-filled class period.

EDUCATING

FOR

Modesto Union Academy is proud of the spiritual nature of its students, and justly so, for we believe that there are no finer young people to be found anywhere. The religious phase of education is the foundation of life at Modesto Union Academy. During the Fall and again in the Spring the Academy plays host for a formal Week of Prayer, this year conducted by the evangelist Elder Stanley Harris, in the Fall, and Elder Sorrenson of the P. U. C. Bible Department, in the Spring. A Student Week of Devotion was held in both November and April with the students themselves officiating.

On occasions, we are honored by the presence of noted groups such as the "Faith For Today" Group.

The goal that all strive for is a complete blending of Physical, Mental and Spiritual excellence, so that students coming from Modesto Union Academy will be the fit representatives of true Christian men and women that this world so desperately cries for.

Dear Lyle,
To one of the truly nicest people I know. It has been a real pleasure for me to know you. Don't forget all of the fun we've had. May the very best of luck follow you throughout your life. I wish you happiness and success and may God bless you.

Lovingly yours
always,
Cherie
